

2016 PAMA Annual Conference Evaluation Results – Page 1

1. The session you learned the most from: ID Theft – The World’s Fastest Growing Crime
2. The sessions you learned the least from: Municipal Compliance with MS4 Requirements and Organizing a Community Event
3. Rate the Sheraton Station Square:
 - Excellent – 10 (40%)
 - Very Good – 3 (12%)
 - Good – 10 (40%)
 - Fair – 1 (4%)
 - Poor (Cleanliness) – 1 (4 %)
4. Comments on Thursday's Tour:
 - Disappointed but dinner was good
 - More time in the Strip District
 - Too long in the glass Center – Too hot
 - Not one of the best – Kudos for the efforts, just didn’t work out well
 - Not worth the money
 - I would have rather stayed at the Hotel
 - Awesome
5. General Comments or Suggestions on the Program Content:
 - Didn’t get as much out of this years as last years
 - Nice variety and applicable topics
 - Very Good – Informative array of topics
 - Sessions were geared to supervisors not administrators
 - Some of the speakers were not prepared
 - Great conference – all the speakers were great
 - Program was organized – Well put together
 - Use microphone for speaker questions
 - Full continental breakfast each morning
 - Break food was different – Boxed lunch not a good idea
 - Little mix of everything
 - Handouts should be sent electronically
 - Usually have a wonderful time – I enjoy it and learn a great deal
 - Need more coffee
 - Not a good financial decision to spend extra money staying over Friday night for a one hour session on Saturday

2016 PAMA Annual Conference Evaluation Results – Page 2

6. Comments on the Conference Exhibits:

- Great – Informative - Enjoyed
- Everyone was friendly
- Nice to see different faces and exhibitors
- Many sessions didn't apply to administrators, more towards roadmaster
- Best participation in a long time
- Nice selection and mix
- Took a lot away, started a new program with PLGIT
- KPN and Corrections were a good addition

7. Topic/Speaker Suggestions for the 2017 Annual Conference, August 16-19, at Kalahari Resorts in Mount Pocono:

- Achieving a more productive office when there are only 1 or 2 employees
- Active shooter incident
- Being a new administrator – Looking for more ideas on successfully running and maintaining a municipal office
- Breakout for first time administrators
- Charles Maxwell, Humorist
- Code Enforcement
- Community Recreation
- Dealing with an argumentative council/supervisors
- Dealing with complaints on abandoned properties
- Employment Law
- Fair Labor Standards Act
- How to create effective minutes
- How to get more information to your residents
- How to prepare to deal with the media when a crisis or emergency in your community becomes newsworthy
- Land Bank Laws and Powers
- More on Notaries
- Municipal pensions and audits
- Municipal Records in the 21st Century
- Organizing agendas
- PennDOT Liquid Fuels update
- Q & A with a Municipal Solicitor
- Records Retention and Agendas
- Requirements and Clearances – Working with children
- Revitalization of communities (success stories) – Changing a dying Downtown to a thriving Downtown
- Safety Committees (4 people suggested)
- Sunshine Law
- Taking credit card/electronic payments – pros, cons and liability to municipality
- Workers Comp

PAMA Annual Conference Evaluation Results – Page 3

8. Are you planning on attending next year's Conference:

- Yes – 16 (64%)
- No – 1 (Retiring) (4%)
- * Not Sure- 1 (4%)
- Maybe – 3 (12%)
- Hopefully – 3 (12%)
- Probably Not – 1 (Too costly when not close) (4%)

*Didn't get enough this year to justify the cost of attending; last year I came back feeling I learned a lot.